

2007 Exhibitor Terms & Conditions

The following materials comprise the contract regulations set forth by CRRA for all organizations and their personnel exhibiting at CRRA 2007.

CONTRACT FOR SPACE

The "Application and Contract" must be completed in its entirety and accompanied by full payment of the total fee for the number of booths requested. No applications will be processed or space assigned without both the contract and the payment being received. The signed "Application and Contract" and subsequent notice of assignment constitute a contract between the California Resource Recovery Association (hereinafter referred to as CRRA) and the exhibitor. Any point not specifically covered in these regulations is subject to the decision of CRRA, whose decision shall be final.

FLOOR PLAN

All measurements shown on the floor plan have been made as accurately as possible. However, CRRA reserves the right to make such modifications as may be needed, making equitable adjustments with the affected exhibitors.

ASSIGNMENT OF SPACE

Booth space will be assigned at the discretion of CRRA with due regard to the history of participation in such programs as industry partnership, past exhibitions, advertising, and sponsorship for the Association. Assignments will be made according to postmark date. Payments must be made before assignment of space.

CRRA will attempt to assign requested spaces. However, exhibitors must be aware that other requests may have been made for the same booth space, especially for popular locations. The decision of CRRA with respect to booth space will be final and binding upon all exhibitors. Applications must be made by mail. Fax copies or telephone requests will be accepted on a conditional basis pending receipt of payment.

SUBLETTING OF SPACE

CRRA prohibits and enforces that exhibitors may not assign or sublet any part of their allotted exhibit space to another business or firm without the advance, written permission of CRRA. Contracts for exhibit space are between CRRA and each individual exhibitor, not between exhibiting companies. Therefore, the subletting of space is grounds for CRRA's termination of any contract that exists.

PAYMENT TERMS

Full payment of the booth fee must be received with contract for space to be reserved. Exhibitors will not be able to setup until the exhibit fees and any other delinquent payments to CRRA are paid in full.

REFUND AND CANCELLATION POLICY

Notice of cancellations must be made in writing (no exceptions) to CRRA. Cancellations received on or after June 1, 2007, will result in CRRA retaining 50 percent of the full rental cost of the booth space. No refunds for cancellations will be granted after June 30, 2007. CRRA shall not be liable for any interest on the amount refunded.

USE OF SPACE

Displays must be contained within the assigned booth spaces in such a way that they do not interfere with other exhibitors' displays. Canvassing, distributing advertising matter, or the posting of any advertising in any public space outside of the exhibitor's rented space is not permitted and is grounds for removal from the exhibit hall. In addition, companies violating this rule may be excluded from future CRRA exhibitions. All exhibits must conform strictly to the display guidelines set out in this notice. CRRA reserves the right to restrict any exhibit that might be considered undesirable or does not conform to these Terms and Conditions. CRRA also reserves the right to make any modifications to displays, at exhibitor's expense, so that the exhibit conforms to the Terms and Conditions.

HEIGHT AND CONSTRUCTION RESTRICTIONS

- For all booth types, exhibit booth is considered to be contained in the space stated in the individual schematics set out within this document, to the maximum heights stated pipe and drape 8' high. Remember that the use of sound systems or equipment producing sound is an exception to the rule, not the norm. CRRA reserves the right to determine at what point sound constitutes interference with others and must be discontinued.

The exhibitor agrees to pay all royalties, license fees, or other charges accruing or becoming due to any firm, person, or corporation by reason of any music, either live or recorded, or other entertainment of any kind or nature, played, staged, or produced by the exhibitor, its agents, or employees within the premises covered by the License agreement, including but not limited to royalties or licensing fees due to BMI or ASCAP. Exhibitor agrees to hold harmless CRRA, its agents, and employees against any and all such claims and charges and to defend, at

Exhibitors are not permitted to display equipment or products or to conduct product demonstrations in suites or sleeping rooms during the Exposition. All company meeting arrangements must be approved by CRRA. NOTE: Neither hospitality nor meeting functions are permitted during official CRRA meeting hours. WASTE PREVENTION

Exhibitor acknowledges that a focus of this conference is on waste reduction, reuse, repair, and recycling. Therefore, exhibitors will minimize the generation of wastes in the construction, operation, and dismantling of their booth. Exhibitors are encouraged to bring only enough materials for the number of anticipated attendees as specified by CRRA. In addition, a full recycling program will be provided on-site for all materials readily recycled within the neighboring community. Exhibitors will be billed a disposal fee of $25/box for any literature or souvenirs left at The Doubletree Hotel San Pedro for disposal after exhibitors dismantle their booth.

EXHIBITOR SERVICE KIT

The service kits will be available in May. Every effort will be made to have the entire kit available on the CRRA website. All contracted exhibitors will be notified when the kit becomes available online, or will be mailed a kit directly if it is not available electronically.
